

Dear class,

As we prepare our hearts for Easter, although don't get me wrong, I'm still crazy about bunnies, jelly beans, Easter egg hunts, etc., let's be sure we're focusing on the real meaning of that wondrous weekend. That tomb was empty!

Was it all over on Friday? ☹ ...or was the best yet to come? Yes, indeed. Sunday morning, Resurrection morning! ☺ Remember the angels' question to the women, "...Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here; but is risen:..." (Luke 24:1-6). The angels spoke to the women/womanhood? But where were the men/manhood? Interesting questions, don't you think?

See you Sunday morning and we'll search the scriptures (John 5:39), as the Master asked us to do, and we'll discover the answers.

Warmest love,

Mrs. Davis ☺

High School Class

First Church Tempe, AZ

*Jesus had no servants, yet they called him Master.
Had no degree, yet they called him Teacher.
Had no medicines, yet they called him Healer.
Had no army, yet kings feared him.
He won no military battles, yet he conquered the world.
He committed no crime, yet they crucified him.
He was buried in a tomb, yet ...*

Anon

*"...he is risen; he is not here:
behold the place where they laid him."*

Mark 16:6 {the empty tomb;...}

*Can we say with the angels to-day:
"He is risen; he is not here:
behold the place where they laid him"?*

Mary Baker Eddy, Miscellany 122:22-24

