12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; 13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks
(1) One like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.
(2) 14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; 15 and his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. 16 And
(3) He had in his right hand seven stars: and
(4) Out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and
(5) His countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. 17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, FEAR NOT;
(6) I am the first and the last: 18 I am he that liveth, and was dead: and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen;
(7) And have the keys of hell and of death.

FOREWORD TO THE SEVEN-FOLD MESSAGE

19 WRITE
The things which thou hast seen, and
The things which are, and
The things which shall be hereafter;
20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks.

The seven stars
are the angels of the seven churches:
and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest
are the seven churches.
INTRODUCTION
THE SEVEN-FOLD MESSAGE TO THE CHURCHES
Revelation II: 1 to III: 22

FIRST MESSAGE

2. 1 unto the angel of the church of ephesus write

These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars: 3 and hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches;
To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.
THE REVELATION OF ST. JOHN AN OPEN BOOK

THE Revelation of St. John is no longer a sealed book, because Truth has provided the key which unlocks it. That key is Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy. Mrs. Eddy's other writings throw additional light upon its pages so that Revelation is now an open book.

Briefly, the Revelation of St. John is made up of the introduction, seven visions, and conclusion. The chapter entitled "The Apocalypse" in the Christian Science textbook deals at some length with three of these visions, the third, the fourth and the seventh. It also tells that the seven seals in the second vision are seals of error. (Science and Health 572:12)

The textbook also throws light upon the seven vials of wrath constituting the fifth vision. (Science and Health 293:24) Mrs. Eddy likewise unravels the meaning of the sixth vision in her spiritual definitions of the terms "Word of God," "angels," "beast and false prophet," "dragon," "resurrection," "Satan," and "Babylon," which are in the sixth vision. A scientific comparison reveals that the first vision (Revelation 4:1 to 5:10) and the opening pages of Recapitulation (Science and Health, pp. 465-467) are analogous in their unfoldment.

The above and other writings of our revered Leader throw floods of light upon the book of Revelation. The messages to the seven churches (Revelation 2 and 3) are explained in Mrs. Eddy's Message for 1900 (pp. 11-14), and the Babylonish woman (Revelation 16:19 to 18:24) is commented upon with great clarity in Miscellany (p. 125:29).
The Glossary (Science and Health pp. 579-599) contains about 120 Scriptural words, spiritually defined. Seventy-nine of these words apply to the book of Revelation. Thus it is seen that in the light of Mrs. Eddy's writings may be discerned the spiritual interpretation of the Revelation of St. John which Science alone furnishes.

THE PLACE MRS. EDDY GIVES

TO THE REVELATION OF ST. JOHN

The place which Mrs. Eddy gives to the Revelation of St. John is the place which every Christian Scientist should give to this book of the Bible. Indicating its importance, she has made the Apocalypse one of the chapters in her textbook on Christian Science, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures.

She tells us in the Message for 1901 (p. 32), that together with the Sermon on the Mount, the Ninety-first Psalm, and the First Commandment, St. John's Revelation educated her thought and prepared her to "receive the Science of Christianity." The Apocalypse as well as Genesis to her is transparent, for it contains "the deep divinity of the Bible." (Science and Health 546:18)

Mrs. Eddy gently hints that full acquaintance with the book of Revelation and the right understanding of it is indispensable to the Christian Scientist. She places as one of the texts at the head of the chapter on the Apocalypse, "Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things, which are written therein: for the time is at hand." (Revelation 1:3) She plainly says that the twelfth chapter "has a special suggestiveness in connection with the nineteenth century" and that the distinctive feature in the opening of the sixth seal has reference to the present
The theme of "The Revelation of St. John" is the warfare which makes Christian Science manifest in consciousness. The preface (Revelation 1:1-20) gives the Revelator's explanation for his task; the introduction (Revelation 2:1 to 3:22) presents seven conditions in the church which would hinder the manifestation of Christian Science; while the conclusion (Revelation 22:6-19) reveals seven admonitions which forward the manifestation of Christian Science. The seven visions (Revelation 4:1 to 22:5, O.B. 114) set forth the Scriptural symbolism: the oxen symbolizing the all-knowing God; and the molten sea, God's reflection. (I Kings 7:23-25)

The second beast of the four in the midst and about the throne was "like a calf," correlative with the second great verity of being, - omniscience. (Science and Health 587:19)

III

A MAN

(Revelation 4:7, O.B. 147)

"The third beast had a face as a man." (Revelation 4:7) This word man is the Greek anthropos, the same word used in the phrase "Son of man" (Revelation 1:13-16; 14:14); also in chapter 21, where it says, "according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel." It is interesting to note that in Revelation there are six different Greek words translated man.

Of the word man, Mrs. Eddy writes, "In one of the ancient languages the word for man is used also as the synonym of mind." (Science and Health 516:31) Its significance has reference not to personality, but to the expression of the one infinite Person - God. Man, spiritual activity, is the expression of God's presence; therefore, the third living being with a face as a man typifies the third great verity of being, - omnipresence. (Science and Health 587:19)

IV

A FLYING EAGLE

(Revelation 4:7, O.B. 147)

The fourth living being about the throne (Revelation 4:7) was "like a flying eagle." Each of the four living beings have three pairs of wings. In the Scriptures, wings symbolize rapid flight.
