

True Self-Hood

Everything I need to know is instantaneous Mind-thinking. Knowing Mind, I know all things – ideas – reflection as the thinking Mind. Matter does not think, nor does any phase of belief think. Ideas are not in sub-consciousness. They are conscious reflections. And Mind or consciousness is all. So all that I read and know is Mind. Soul is the beauty of Mind and expression. It is not in man. It is the character and quality -- harmony, beauty, joy, and identity embodied in intelligent being or ideas. Ideas are not separate from Mind, but are Mind-thinking itself. I therefore have no fear of memory for it is only a lesser concept of the so-called human mind – which is not mind at all. I know always what I need to know from the standpoint of instantaneous Mind-thinking.

The basis of right thinking is spiritual metaphysics. Mathematics itself rests upon metaphysics for basis and completeness. (See S&H page 113) Purely material learning and history called memory fade before Mind-thinking – the true consciousness. No one is left out. Space, time, circumstance, and walls are no obstacles to Mind. Being is infinite - all that exists and ever has existed. Seeing God, Mind, Soul we see body, beauty, as intelligent array. God writes with the hand of Love.

His Presence is consciousness now living, moving, being called man everywhere. You are beauty, harmony, and power as Truth. Nothing can hinder you. And you are the music of the spheres. You are not God but the one with consciousness or Mind-thinking. It is Soul-thinking. Actually!

I drop all archaic forms, thoughts, attitudes, and systems – they only separate in belief from Mind. My consciousness is not of Mind, but as Mind-thinking. Of Mind is archaic pedantry; as Mind-thinking is instantaneous reality. Have only instantaneous reality.

I see as Mind-seeing, hear as Mind-hearing. I belong (everywhere) as Mind-power. I am conscious-expression. I am in Mind-eternity even as I am in Mind-Science. Only the instantaneous real identifies me and you.

Take what you need to know instantly. It is Mind-thinking to a whole new level.
