

Understanding is Emmanuel

Spiritual understanding is power. Mortality is error – it embodies the error that life, truth, intelligence, and substance are in an unreal subjective state of a so-called mortal mind – the “liar and the father of it.” (Jesus)

Handle mortality fully. It enters into the human concept as basic error – an error about life and substance. Mortality is the sin of false judgement. It puts darkness and limitation over everything and everyone. It is the shadow of error – the error of physical belief. (See the term “Flesh” in S&H)

Good never dies, is not limited, and always exalts individual man and God. It is the basis of health and harmony. Goodness belongs to God. And man is good only as God is good. That is man’s highest point of being. The real man knows that good, immortal Truth, is ever-present.

To understand the immortality of good is to understand God. Understand as God understands. That is true substance manifested.

Understanding good, you cannot fail at anything you do. Goodness embodies immortality, safety, harmony, love, peace, and beauty. God understands you. And He understands ‘good’ in all aspects. Thus, the fullness of good is everywhere expressed. “When we subordinate the false testimony of the corporeal senses to the facts of Science, we shall see this true likeness and reflection everywhere.” (S&H)

To be all good is to be as God is, to think as God thinks, to love as God loves, to see as God sees, and to do this ad infinitum is the royal and best way of all.

Let goodness as God, the perfect and only God, be your highest goal. He will aide you with all-power, all-presence, and all-science. You cannot fail of total goodness and perfect blessings.
